Karate Camps 2010: June 12-13 and/or July 19-23

You and your friends and family are invited to these FUN events! There are activities for everyone, from 5-95 and from white belt to black belt. Even if you have never done karate before; these are a great place to start.

What to expect: Guest Instructors, Classes in Kata, Fighting, Advanced Fighting, Weapons training, Water training, Calisthenics, Games, Throwing Knives and stars (in a supervised and safe way) and more...

Weekend Camp: Students and families are welcome to stay overnight. You may sleep in the dojo or you may camp out on our property. Please note that supervision of your children is your responsibility between classes, during non-scheduled time and overnight. If you, the guardian, are not able to attend, please make arrangements with another parent or speak with Sensei Lisa directly.

Full Camp: Children 8 years and over are welcome to attend each day with or without an adult.

What To Bring: Extra Gi Pants (for water training) or Sweat pants, Belt, Bo, Tonfas, Sparring Gear, Sneakers, Bathing Suit, Water and Snacks, Sunscreen, hat, bug spray, sunglasses, and a Great Attitude.

What we need: Volunteers to help with mealtime preparation, supervision and clean-up; especially breakfast on June 13. Please see Eric or Lisa to sign-up.
